

STEARNS COLLECTION OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

stearns@umich.edu

the university of michigan

(734) 936-2891

KEY QUESTIONS:

What is the Stearns Collection?

Where is the Stearns Collection?

What does Stearns have to offer?

How flexible are we?

What is the Stearns Collection?

Stearns is largest musical instrument collection associated with a University—in the world. Our global collection houses more than 2,500 instruments from six of the seven continents on earth, representing nearly every type of instrument that human culture has ever produced.

Where is the Stearns Collection?

We are located at the Earl V. Moore Building on the U of M's North Campus—the School of Music, Theatre, & Dance. Bus parking is available.

What does Stearns have to offer?

Docent led tours through 12 exhibit cases featuring approximately 100 instruments. Focus on development of instruments, global music heritage, & the physics of sound production.

Group Activity: Playing the Javanese Gamelan.

How flexible are we?

We would be pleased to work with you to try to best incorporate your specific teaching content into our docent-led tours. Please call or e-mail us for more information.

THANK YOU!